

April 30, 2008

Crimestopper's Tip Leads To The Arrest Of A Murder Suspect

New Orleans, LA - Members of the New Orleans Police Department have arrested 18-year-old Devin Garrison and booked him in connection with the murder of Rigobero Dominguez Duvon that occurred on November 28, 2007, and an attempted murder that occurred on December 3, 2007, in the 700 block of Pleasant Street.

As a result of the on going investigation, Detective Amando Asaro identified 18-year-old Devin Garrison as the person responsible for the murder.

United States Marshal's Fort Worth Fugitive Task Force along with Fort Worth Police Department apprehended Devin Garrison in Fort Worth Texas today as a result of a Crimestopper's tip.

Arrested: 18-year-old Devin Garrison

Arrested for: One count of First Degree Murder

One count of Attempted First Degree Murder

###